Russell Young

British-American, b. 1979

In 2026, the world will mark 100 years of Marilyn Monroe. As a tribute to the legendary icon, the Marilyn Monroe Estate and Authentic Brands has selected Russell Young as the official artist for MARILYN 100 and her centennial celebration. MARILYN 100 will be a yearlong program of exhibitions, new artworks, and exclusive events around the globe, featuring collaborations with premier lifestyle partners, including Haute Living, Velocity Black, and several household names of Authentic Brands Group, such as Champion, Piper-Heidsieck Champagne, and more.

Russell Young is best known for his large-scale diamond dust silk-screen works that explore themes of fame, desire, trauma, and the myths entwined in cultural memory. After studying Fine Art in London, Young began his career as a photographer, capturing the early energy of Bauhaus, R.E.M., and The Smiths before shooting George Michael's Faith album cover. After transitioning to painting in the early 2000s, Young continues to develop a bold visual language that examines the brutality and beauty of celebrity culture and American fantasy.

Mr. Brainwash

French, b. 1966

Mr. Brainwash

Mr. Brainwash, the pseudonym of French-born artist Thierry Guetta, is a provocative and wildly successful presence in today's art market. He rose to prominence after being featured in Banksy's film Exit Through the Gift Shop in 2010. Since then, Mr. Brainwash has captured the imagination of the international market through his unique fusion of classic Pop Art imagery and the subversive playfulness of Street Art. He often juxtaposes cultural icons of the past with those of the present, while stylistically paying homage to a range of artists from Andy Warhol to Keith Haring and Banksy. Over the past decade, Mr. Brainwash has completed countless high-profile commissions and events, including collaborations with Nike, Disney, Hublot, Ray-Ban, Stella Artois, the album cover for Madonna's Celebration, an appearance on Jimmy Fallon's The Tonight Show, among others. In 2021, he created a commissioned 30-foot mural at The Gabriel South Beach, Curio Collection by Hilton on Miami's iconic Ocean Drive.

Shelby and Sandy

Shelby and Sandy
American

Shelby and Sandy are brothers based in Los Angeles who have collaborated to create vibrant yet minimalist pop art-inspired work, often referencing 90's cartoon characters, superheroes, or iconic athletes in their whimsical aesthetic. After graduating from the University of Southern California, the brothers began formally collaborating in 2013.

Since they began, the duo has generated an extraordinary following online and built a direct collector base without traditional gallery representation. With over 400k followers on Instagram, they have attracted high-profile clientele such as Drake, Bradley Cooper, Chief Keef, and Mariah Carey, to name a few. Shelby and Sandy are a sought-after duo who have worked on corporate collaborations with brands including Cosmopolitan, the LA Dodgers, Louis Vuitton, Sperry, Coachella Festival, Disney, and many more.

Rubem Robierb

Brazilian, b. 1976

Rubem Robierb is a Brazilian-born multidisciplinary artist whose practice includes poetry, photography, printmaking, painting, augmented and virtual reality, and sculpture. He began his career at the age of 20 in the advertising industry, where he established himself as a fashion photographer. The poetic power and vitality of his work led to a series of invitations to exhibit his work across Europe. Robierb has installed public art in several parks and has worked with numerous organizations, including the SLS Hotels, the Sagamore in Miami, and Celebrity Cruise Lines. In February 2021, he unveiled two monumental sculptures, Peace Makers and Dream Machine II, as part of the NYC Art in the Parks program in partnership with the Randall's Island Park Alliance.

Robierb has also been an active participant at Art Basel Miami Beach for several years. The artist currently lives in New York City and Miami, where he maintains a studio in South Beach.
